DISTRIBUTION:

VUORI[v] and FAGERHOLMFAGERHOLM now understand that a radical reorganisation of the government is necessary, [and] it is in hand, specifically with the aim of preventing tricky incidents, [5 groups unrecoverable], and promoting a favourable atmosphere for peace negotiations. This is proceeding now in secret and must not be impeded. TAMMER's obstinacy must be taken into account - he can still do harm; incidentally he will also delay

[75 groups unrecoverable]

, as is for example the Minister TAJKI[vii], who does not dare say a word without first making TAMMER's permission. [Of As Minister of Agriculture] it is proposed to have KEMONEN[viii]. VIRTANEN himself longs for the opposition to have links with the Russians. He would like to establish these links himself, [ix] need to know POPOV[x] but, as he himself says: "Obviously I am too small a man to have any hope of contact with the Russians"; and VUORI says that VIRTANEN is not acceptable to the Russians because of his former propaganda for a Scandinavian bloc.

Notes: [a] Or "handed over/transmitted".

[b] Inserted by the translator: the last part of the sentence is missing.

It has been assumed that "TALLINEN" is in the genitive case, but it is just possible that it is in the dative case: the translation of this phrase would then read "...VIRTANEN via KLARA passed up a letter to "TALLINEN"....".

Comments: [i] VIRTANEN: / Atos Easimir VIRTANEN, Swedish Social Democrat, member of the Finnish Parliament; and editor of "ARBETARBLADET".

[ii] KLARA: /

[iii] TALLINEN: x i.e. "CYLINDER"; unidentified. Also occurs in STOCKHOLM's Nos. [66] of 22nd February 1944 (3/NEF/T1582), 578 of 25th February 1944 (3/NEF/T523) and 658 of 4th March 1944 (3/NEF/T526).

[iv] TAMMER: / Väinö Alfred TAMMER, Social Democrat, Minister of Finance in the previous Finnish (LIIKEMIES) Government.
